this is an annotated bibliography of catholic books in english printed abroad or secretly in england at a time when catholic printing was prohibited in england and such books when discovered by the authorities were seized and destroyed it includes all the 930 items listed in the authors a catalogue of catholic books in english 1956 a r except for a handful which for reasons of consistency were described in volume i of the present work scolar press 1989 and it adds a further twenty five on which information has come to light more recently the annotations historical literary and bibliographical are very much fuller than those in a r and include a vast amount of evidence now brought together for the first time the true authors of many anonymous and pseudonymous books are identified and many books issued with a false imprint or no imprint at all are assigned to particular presses in each entry up to fifteen locations are given where known a concordance links the entries with those in a r to facilitate cross reference from one to the other and indexes of titles printers and publishers and persons including foreign authors mentioned in the text are provided the volume concludes with a short list of addenda and corrigenda to volume i the newsletters printed in this volume were written by catholics who had access to the court of charles i and henrietta maria during the 1630s the letters principal concern was the factional strife among english catholics particularly over the issue of whether they should be subject to the authority of a catholic bishop appointed by the papacy to live and rule over them in england but these letters also contain court news and gossip information about foreign policy issues and comment on the contemporary church of england controversies over theology and clerical conformity they are an important source for the study of the ideological tone of the caroline court and of the ambition of certain sections of the catholic community to secure a form of legal tolerance from the crown
